Dear Church Family,

As you receive this edition of Together at Dawson magazine, we find ourselves just a few weeks into the beginning of a new year. The turning of the calendar year has a way of inviting us all to lift our eyes, to consider where we've been, and to ask where God may be leading us next.

The good news for us as followers of Christ is that every new season begins with a faithful God. While the details of our lives may change, the Lord remains steady and sure. His grace is constant, His power never wanes, and His purposes continue to unfold in ways both seen and unseen. Each new day reminds us that God is still at work—using imperfect people to accomplish His perfect will.

Throughout these pages, we celebrate the many ways we have seen God at work in and through our church family over the past year. As you read, you'll be encouraged by stories of God's faithfulness and our church's growth and impact. You'll discover new opportunities to join in God's mission in and through our church in the days ahead.

There are new faces to welcome, ministries to celebrate, and fresh ways to serve and connect with others this new year. My prayer is that these stories will inspire us to seek God's direction together, both in our individual lives and as a church family.

In this new year, may the Lord deepen our faith, strengthen our unity, and renew our joy as we serve Him together.

Blessings,
